

Injury Management Policy

Paull-Warner Resources (PWR) – leading Australian supplier and fabricator of emergency response vehicles; supplier of medical and emergency response equipment; provider of emergency response and industrial safety training; provider of emergency response, medical and security personnel; and the design, installation and maintenance of fire detection and occupant warning systems, fixed and mobile fire suppression systems and portable firefighting equipment - believes that the workplace can be injury free for all workers. We will work with our team members (staff and contractors) and clients, and ensure that all our business decisions support our aim of Target Zero.

In the event of a work related injury, PWR is committed to:

- Providing the best possible response to the management of injured workers, and
- Assisting injured workers to return to work as soon as medically appropriate, and
- Whenever possible, suitable duties will be arranged internally having regard for the injured worker's medical restrictions, and
- Will adhere to the requirements of the Workers' Compensation and Injury Management Act 1981.

Management supports the injury management process and recognises that its success relies on the active participation of all relevant parties, including the injured worker, company management, treating medical practitioners, the insurer.
