

Paull and Warner Resources (PWR) recognises the health and wellbeing of workers is important and is committed to have a workforce that is safe, healthy, resilient, and engaged.

To assist workers to maintain and improve their general health and wellbeing to achieve success in their work we foster a working environment and culture which promotes maintenance of health and wellbeing.

PWR will endeavour to provide a strong team culture that focuses on the physical, mental, and emotional health of our team members to ensure they remain fit for work.

PWR will:

- Regularly monitor and limit work-related health risks of workers and workplace conditions to prevent illness and injury through risk assessment processes
- Take measures to help all employees, contractors and visitors maintain appropriate health and fitness standards
- Prevent the inappropriate behaviour and harm that can be caused by alcohol and other drugs at work
- Promote the physical, mental, and emotional health of its team members by increasing awareness of the adverse effects of alcohol and other drugs
- Prevent and minimise the adverse effects of fatigue, work conditions and excessive hours at work
- Encourage behaviour and attitudes that are conducive to a healthy and safe workplace
- Communicate that all employees have a moral and legal responsibility to their workmates and to themselves to maintain a safe and healthy work environment and to perform their duties without risk to the safety and health of themselves and others.
